Early Morning at The Point

$3 465.00

Early Morning at the Point - 16 x 20 oil on board

This ravishing painting captures the very early morning light on Walden Pond Point. The subtle hues and their reflection pour forth the ethereal light and atmosphere of the celebrated and sacred Pond. No wonder Thoreau was enthralled with this site and Beatrice captures its beauty and essence in a most magical way. The light in the painting glows! A must see painting! Part of the Beatrice Walden collection created for the Sept 2010 showing at the Walden Tsongus Galley.
